

JIM JIM

2017

Jim Jim was Hugh's faithful Labrador/Kelpie at Hugh Hamilton's estate in McLaren Vale, South Australia. Every vintage Jim Jim would eat Shiraz grapes only when they were ripe for the picking, so with viticultural skills like that Hugh decided he should get his own brand. Jim Jim went to the big kennel in the sky in November 2010 but his talent is remembered in his wines.

WINEMAKERS NOTES

2017 Vintage was tremendously good – great weather from start to finish, no rush to pick and therefore plenty of time to get it right; personally I think we did.

BOUQUET

As loaded with character as Jim-Jim himself and as eager to please. Brimming with violets, dark fruits, woody spices, and rosehip.

PALATE

The palate is lengthy, even, and crunchy with bright fruit, blackberry pie, tobacco box, and spice..

COLOUR

A colour as lively as Jim Jim himself! Plummy, vibrant, red

DRINK

This wine will reward with ageing up to 2025 but if you want to experience the spirit of Australia in a bottle, take Jim Jim home today. Arf Arf!

FOOD MATCH

Pair Jim Jim with BBQ, Wok charred noodles, ribs, beef curry, sizzling beef, Sichuan pepper beef or spicy sausages.
