

JIM JIM

2018

Jim Jim was Hugh's faithful Labrador/Kelpie at Hugh Hamilton's estate in McLaren Vale, South Australia. Every vintage Jim Jim would eat Shiraz grapes only when they were ripe for the picking, so with viticultural skills like that Hugh decided he should get his own brand. Jim Jim went to the big kennel in the sky in November 2010 but his talent is remembered in his wines.

WINEMAKERS NOTES

2018 Vintage was just about perfect – great weather from start to finish, no rush to pick and therefore plenty of time to get it right; personally I think we did.

BOUQUET AND PALATE

As loaded with character as Jim-Jim himself and just as eager to please. Toasty red-fruit lift. Plums, strawberry shortcake, violets, and light baked spices. A soft and rich palate. Bright with crunchy fruit and lip smacking blue fruited vibrancy.

COLOUR

Plummy, vibrant, red

DRINK

This wine will reward with ageing up to 2022 but if you want to experience the spirit of Australia in a bottle, take Jim Jim home today. Arf Arf!

FOOD MATCH

Jim-Jim certainly wouldn't turn his nose up at a steak or a gourmet pizza and neither should you.
